

NEWS FROM THE EDGE OF WRIGHT

November 4, 2024

By Jennie Hanson

Both the Bethlehem and Bethany Lutheran churches observed All Saint's Day with a candle lighting ceremony on Sunday November 3rd. Those remembered were Donald Hutar, Kim Peters Creager, Dagny Quarnstrom, Harriet Reno, Jon Swenson, Duane Schafer, Judy Rosicky, and Joann Beck. May they RIP!

Halloween is over and I was surprised to get 37 Trick or Treaters at my new home in Cromwell. I was prepared for about 25, so had to improvise on the last few kids, but they all went away happy. Anyway, it was fun to see so many happy kids and most of them were accompanied by their parents.

With the election for President too close to call, I'm hoping and praying the results are fair and honest, and accepted at the end of counting! We don't need another January 20th like the one in 2020!

Fire Department sponsored "Trunk or Treat" was a huge success. They must have had 15 to 20 area folks participating in the event and they even had to close early because they ran out of treats. I'm sure it will grow to a bigger and better event next year. Thanks to everyone who participated.

The CACC Hunter's Supper is scheduled for November 8th from 4-7 PM. Prices are $18.00 adult, $10 ages 5- 12, under 5 free. They are asking members and others to volunteer with prep, serving, clean up. They may need extra volunteers as several of the CACC Members will be going to Morehead High School for the Cromwell Wright Cardinals State Tournament game. The Cromwell-Wright Cardinals defeated Nevis and are now headed to the state Quarter Finals at Morehead High School verses Fertile-Beltrami at 7 PM.

The Red Bird Bazaar will take place on Saturday, November 9th from 9-2, at the school. The Villa Vista invites all veterans and families to their Veterans Day program at 9:30 AM on November 11th. Come and hear the stories of our vets and show your appreciation. Then, the Cromwell-Wright School invites all Veterans and community to the Annual Veterans Day Program at the school starting at 1 PM. These are two events that will impress you as the community honors their veterans.

The Carlton County Historical Society announced that the 2025 Barn Calendars are now available. Memberships are also encouraged. They no longer charge admission and memberships are only $15 -$20 a year. Donations of the following items are also needed: Reams of copy paper, Kitchen size 13-gallon trash bags, expanding Manila file folders, Postage stamps, paper towels and glue dots. You can drop off these things on Tuesday – Friday from 10 – 4 or Saturday from 10 – 3 until November 1st.

The City of Wright with the Wright Community Club will meet at 6 PM on November 13th at the Fire Hall to discuss changing the direction of the ball field. This is an open meeting for ideas or questions of what will be happening at the park.

Ruby's Pantry is on Thursday, November 14th at the Cromwell Park Pavilion, 9-10:30 AM. The Lakeside Community Club will be having a Mojakka Supper at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Wright on November 16th from 4-8 PM.

Bethany Lutheran Church in Cromwell is holding their Annual Bazaar on Saturday, November 16 starting at 9am. There will be a Brunch served, Baked Goods and Handmade Items. The Auction will begin at 10am. The proceeds from this event supports the Bethany Beacons Missions. Everyone Welcome!

There is also a Turkey BINGO on Saturday, November 16th at 6:30 PM at the Cromwell Pavilion. This event is sponsored by the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, $10 for 20 games.

What do you call a girl standing in the middle of a Tennis Court? Annette!
What did the custodian say as he jumped out of the closet? "Supplies!"

That's all the news from The Edge of Wright and Cromwell Corner.
